

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 26. to Saturday October 30. 1736.

Whitehall, October 30.

THIS being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Birth-day, the Queen came from the Palace at Kensington to that of St. James's, where her Majesty received, at Noon, the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction: At which time the Guns in St. James's Park and at the Tower were fired, and at Night there was a Ball. The Appearance at Court both at Noon and in the Evening was very numerous and extremely splendid, and on this Occasion there were Ringing of Bells, Bonfires, Illuminations, and other publick Demonstrations of Joy throughout the Cities of London and Westminster.

Edinburgh, Oct. 22. This Day the Right Honourable the Earl of Brodalbin was unanimously chosen to sit and vote in Parliament, in the Room of the Earl of Balcarres, deceased.

London, October 29.

Yesterday Sir John Thompson, Lord Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing, was sworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Emblems of Mayoralty were surrendered to him in the accustomed Manner.

This Day the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-Side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the several Companies in their respective Barges adorned with Streamers and Pendants to Westminster; and having walked round the Hall and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed, and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black-Friers, and from thence in Coaches with the usual Solemnity to Guildhall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided, at which were present the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, the Judges, and other Persons of Quality and Distinction.

Whitehall, October 26, 1736.

Whereas George Kelly, a Prisoner in the Tower of London, made his Escape from thence Yesterday, as is supposed between the Hours of Seven and Eight in the Evening: Her Majesty is graciously pleased to promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons that shall apprehend and seize, or cause to be apprehended and seized, the said George Kelly, so that he may be secured, and proceeded against according to Law.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

The said George Kelly is aged about Forty Eight Years, Five Foot Ten Inches high, or thereabouts, a little too slender, leg'd for his Height, of a fair Complexion, good Teeth, large blue Eyes, and a broad and flattish Face, inclining to be slender rather than fat.

A. Williamson.

In last Tuesday's Gazette, in the Description of George Kelly, for Five Foot Two Inches, read Five Foot Ten Inches.

This is to give Notice, that the next Meeting of the Commissioners for building a Bridge cross the River Thames, from the New Palace Yard in the City of Westminster, to the opposite Shore in the County of Surry, is appointed to be held upon Wednesday the 10th of November next, at the Jerusalem Chamber in the Deanry, Westminster, at Ten a-Clock in the Forenoon.

Jos. Ayloffe, Clerk.
